

MDB 1031 – Vocabulary List

Unit 1

diversity

aligned

longevity

pillars

waning devoted attachments

setbacks

probe

revelation

prevalent

haunts

Unit 2

respond

govern

cue

lifespan

exposure

disrupt insufficient

temperament

endurance

optimize scarce

Unit 3

manipulate

scarcity

recalibrate

augmentation

audacity

ambiguity

accountability

intriguing

resilient

mismatch

intervention

trigger accelerate benign

outweigh undermine

Unit 4

innovation

enhance surveillance wary residential evolve

consumption

implement access

due expand

Unit 5

from scratch perpetrator comply (with) proliferation projection
undermine dismiss fabricate
disinformation fraud resurrect render

Unit 6

attribute entity intertwine
agency interpret conscious reinforce projection manifest autonomy
self-fulfilling generative elevate ambiguity
entanglement

Sample Sentences

Unit 1

1. Many volunteers are devoted to helping children in underprivileged areas.
2. The festival celebrates the diversity of cultures in our community with food and music.
3. Their goals are closely aligned with the values of the organization.
4. The company prioritizes longevity in its products to ensure customer satisfaction.
5. Education, healthcare, and housing are considered the pillars of a stable society.
6. Interest in that hobby is waning among young people today.
7. Healthy relationships often have strong attachments between family members.
8. They faced several setbacks while trying to launch their new product.
9. Scientists continue to probe the depths of the ocean for new discoveries.
10. The revelation about the company's unethical practices shocked the entire industry.
11. Fast food restaurants are prevalent in many urban areas across the country.
12. The old house haunts me with memories of my childhood.

Unit 2

1. It is important to respond quickly to customer complaints to maintain their satisfaction.
2. The new policy will govern how employees are evaluated in the workplace.
3. She took a deep breath as a cue to calm herself before her presentation.
4. With proper care, the lifespan of the average houseplant can be several years.
5. Sun exposure is necessary for our bodies to produce vitamin D.
6. Heavy traffic can disrupt the flow of a city's public transportation system.
7. The study showed insufficient evidence to support the claims made by the researchers.
8. Her friendly demeanor and calm temperament made her a great team leader.
9. Long-distance athletes need a lot of endurance to complete their races.
10. We need to optimize our processes to improve efficiency and reduce costs.
11. Water has become scarce in some regions due to prolonged droughts.

Unit 3

1. The advertisement tried to manipulate consumers by playing on their emotions rather than giving real information.

2. The scarcity of clean drinking water in the region forced people to travel long distances to survive.
3. After receiving poor feedback, the teacher decided to recalibrate the course to better meet students' needs.
4. The new software provides augmentation of human abilities by helping doctors analyze data more accurately.
5. He had the audacity to interrupt the manager and claim the mistake was not his fault.
6. The contract was full of ambiguity, making it difficult to understand each party's responsibilities.
7. The company emphasized accountability by holding leaders responsible for their decisions.
8. The documentary presented an intriguing theory that challenged commonly accepted beliefs.
9. Despite repeated failures, she remained resilient and continued working toward her goals.
10. There was a clear mismatch between his skills and the demands of the job.
11. Early medical intervention prevented the illness from becoming more serious.
12. The loud noise acted as a trigger, causing him to remember the accident.
13. The new policy is expected to accelerate economic growth in the coming years.
14. The doctor reassured the patient that the tumor was benign and not dangerous.
15. The benefits of regular exercise outweigh the small amount of time it requires.
16. Constant criticism can undermine a student's confidence and motivation.

Unit 4

1. Technology drives innovation in many industries, leading to new products and services.
2. Regular exercise can enhance both your physical and mental health.
3. Many cities use surveillance systems to monitor criminal activity and ensure safety.
4. He was wary of making decisions without having all the necessary information.
5. The residential area is known for its beautiful parks and tight-knit community.
6. Animals must evolve over time to adapt to changes in their environment.
7. The consumption of sugary drinks has increased among teenagers in recent years.
8. School administrators plan to implement new teaching methods to engage students better.
9. Online platforms give people access to information that was once hard to find.

10. The project is due next week, so we need to finish it as soon as possible.

11. We hope to expand our business into other cities over the next few years.

Units 5

1. She decided to start her business from scratch to ensure it reflected her vision completely.

2. The police are looking for the perpetrator who committed the robbery last night.

3. All employees must comply with the new safety regulations to ensure a secure workplace.

4. The proliferation of smartphones has changed how we communicate with each other.

5. The projection for next year's sales looks promising, indicating potential growth.

6. Rumors can undermine trust within a team and lead to misunderstandings.

7. He tends to dismiss any idea that doesn't align with his own opinions.

8. It's not ethical to fabricate evidence in any investigation, as it can lead to serious consequences.

9. The spread of disinformation can confuse people and prevent them from making informed decisions.

10. The company was accused of committing fraud by falsifying its financial statements.

11. Many hope that scientists will be able to resurrect endangered species through advanced technology.

12. These changes will render the outdated system more effective for users.

A: I have to start this project from scratch because I lost all my work.

B: That sounds frustrating! How did that happen?

A: Did you hear they caught the perpetrator from the robbery last week?

B: Yeah, I saw that on the news. It's good to know they're making progress.

A: We need to comply with the new safety regulations at work.

B: Absolutely, safety should always be our top priority.

A: The proliferation of smartphones has changed how we communicate.

B: It really has! Everyone is always connected now.

A: The projection for next quarter's sales looks promising.

B: That's great news! I hope we can meet those goals.

A: I think we should just dismiss those negative comments about the event.

B: Agreed, let's focus on the positive feedback we received.

A: It's wrong to fabricate stories just to get attention.

B: I completely agree; honesty is the best policy.

A: Disinformation can really confuse people during elections.

B: It definitely can; we need to be careful about what we believe.

A: Fraud is a serious crime that can hurt many people.

B: Yes, it's important to report any suspicious activity we see.

A: Can we find a way to resurrect the old project?

B: I think we can build on it and make it even better!

A: They can render the video in high definition, which looks amazing.

B: Wow, that's impressive! I can't wait to see it.

Unit 6

1. The success of the project can be attributed to careful planning and teamwork.
2. The university operates as an independent legal entity, separate from the government.
3. Over time, their personal and professional lives began to intertwine, making it hard to separate work from friendship.
4. The program gives students more agency by allowing them to choose how they complete assignments.

5. Readers may interpret the poem differently depending on their personal experiences.
6. She was fully conscious of the risks before making her decision.
7. Positive feedback can reinforce good learning habits.
8. His fear of failure was a projection of his own insecurities onto others.
9. The lack of trust began to manifest in frequent arguments.
10. The manager respected employees' autonomy by trusting them to manage their own tasks.
11. Believing he would fail became a self-fulfilling prophecy when he stopped trying.
12. The AI system is generative, meaning it can create new content rather than just analyze data.
13. The scholarship helped elevate her chances of completing her education.
14. The speaker's vague answer created ambiguity about the final decision.
15. The legal entanglement between the two companies delayed the merger for years.